

Contents

About aphasia	7
About Connect.....	7
Introduction/How to use this guide	8
1. Inclusive stroke research and consultation:
what are the issues?	9
Why involve people with communication impairments in stroke research?.....	12
2. Understanding communication impairment.....	14
Message in and message out	14
What can you do?	16
Using your time well	20
3. Information, consent and administration	22
Sampling and finding people with communication impairments	22
Accessible information: making it clear	23
Consent forms.....	25
The process of giving information and gaining consent	26
Getting the right tone in your information	27
Keeping people informed	27
Administration and correspondence.....	28
4. Interviewing a person with aphasia	30
What about standardisation?.....	31
When things go wrong	32
5. Making meetings work	38
Research and consultation meetings: venues, transport and timing	38
Research meetings: communication and interactions	40
6. When the project ends: dissemination and evaluation	44
The benefits of making dissemination accessible	46

7. Conclusion, resources and bibliography	47
Resources and bibliography.....	48
Other useful resources and contacts	53
Bibliography.....	55
Appendix: sample artefacts.....	59

SAMPLE PAGE